How can I make the contents of the braces printed out instead of putting that into a list and getting the list out? Thanks. A: def test a = 1 b = 2 c = 3 #code #code #code #code [a, b, c] end test puts [a, b, c] #=> [1, 2, 3] The Queen's jubilee and the sextant Before the dawn of the 20th century, there were many mariners who, having sailed the seas far and wide, thought that they had seen and done all there was to see. But there were still nuggets to be discovered within the mind of seafaring man. Historians and amateur sailors alike have spent decades endeavoring to unravel the mysteries of navigation, but for every expert there are dozens of private sailors whose only experience is in gazing at the sun and the stars. And for that reason the observatory is an essential part of the seaman's toolkit. There are three schools of professional astronomy which set standards to which all amateur sailors should aspire; naked-eye, computer-controlled and naked d0c515b9f4
