Based on the characters and setting of the fantasy world of ROBLOX As a longtime member of Roblox, the world where players can imagine, create, and play anything they can dream of, the world of Roblox is like a best friend that you can always be yourself. In ROBLOX, everyone is free to do what they want, without having to worry about the things that might affect their daily lives. We believe that everyone should be able to freely play ROBLOX without any form of restrictions, censorship, or regulations. Our purpose is to provide a fun game environment where everyone can enjoy themselves. However, the truth is that this is not possible by just letting anyone do whatever they want. The choices you make reflect the path your character will take. This means that the world is not a place in which you can play freely but also a place in which you must choose to live honestly. In this world where everyone is free to do anything they want, we impose the rules and guidelines through the characters we create. ROBLOX can be a fun place for everyone. ROBLOX gameplay system: GRAPHICS We wish to express ourselves as much as possible. We are not satisfied by having cartoon-like graphics because we want to create a sophisticated, realistic graphic experience. However, we need to create an environment that is compact enough to fit on any device and that will meet the demands of the number of images we would like to view at once. GAMEPLAY We aim to create a game where everyone is free to do whatever they want, but at the same time, we want to make the game exciting and enjoyable. Our objective is to create a game world that brings out the best in each of the users and allows them to achieve their goals with a sense of satisfaction. We want to use our experience in the ROBLOX games to make everyone feel as if they are living a real world, where they can play any game they want. To make the game's features meet your expectations, we first thought about what we really want to see in a game that we want to play with our friends and social media, and then we researched the whole world of ROBLOX games. In the end, we made the most appropriate choices for the game genre and set the standards for future games in Beatrice? Are you having another heart attack?" The guy's face went blank. "I'm fine," Beatrice's voice was shaking. Rune picked up his ear buds from his pocket and asked, "Are you kidding me? I've been trying to reach you since morning...Are you okay?" "Yep!" Moments later, Rune walked into the kitchen. "You called for an ambulance, you almost had another heart attack, why do you sound so happy?" Beatrice's face was bright with happiness. "I got a good review," she said, sitting on one of the kitchen chairs. "I can't tell you how much I admire you. You all worked all day, did a fantastic job, and at the end of it, you managed to get what you needed to increase your rating." Beatrice nodded. "Yeah, it's not fair but that's just what it is. It was my first day at this new place, the place I needed to be to make a good living. I was so excited to finally start my career as a receptionist. I had been trying to get a job in a more well-known company but I couldn't do anything. There were too many candidates and the people were so rude that I wouldn't even consider doing it. I knew I had to give up on that one and I chose to start my own business. But when I got my new job as a receptionist I realized that I could make a lot more money if I had my own business." Rune looked at the mop in Beatrice's hands. "Beatrice, stop for a second. You've got a bucket of mop water all over your chest." "It's not that bad. I just don't want to lose any more time." Beatrice went back to scrubbing the floor. "I need my own business and I'm gonna get it, something that I always wanted. I'm gonna be my own boss. I'm gonna run my own company. And when I was still working at the department store, all I could think about was what I wanted for my own office. I wanted the most beautiful office with a good design and something that people will always remember me for. Here it is." Rune walked towards her. "You've designed your own office?" "Yep, my design is 100% on point," Beatrice told him.
